Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

The presentation which you made to the staff and students of the Senior and Junior Schools here at Quantico on Tuesday was the highlight of the school year.

Your stimulating, thought-provoking lecture, combined with frank and forthright answers during the question period, has made us acutely aware of the role that the CIA plays in our continuing efforts to combat insurgency.

Please accept my sincere thanks for taking time from your busy schedule to address us. Each of our students and staff members has profited immeasurably from your contribution to our guest lecture program.

We hope that we can again have the pleasure of your company in the future. Until then, my very best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Sincerely,

F. L. WIESEMAN
Lieutenant General, U. S. Marine Corps
